Leon Trotsky and Lenin – “We need them to talk a little, and solve our crisis of illusions, going on now for a month, a bit late, yeah let’s get the answer then yeah.”

“Comrades, we are arguing that in fact you are going through that ecological thing you guys think, but actually just a alienating life, but also and in fact just the pressure of the leadership process, which is also to be sure, just a fancy, which we mean is generally it happens yeah.”

- Students (women mainly, and one man, Milan Kondrovitch who argues a lot about a lack of talking and praxis)

“Comrades, it is definitely a lack of art yeah, where is the artistic style of creativity and all that yeah.”

- Alexandra Kollontoi

(Rosa abusing Lenin in the same mess)

A Long argument on note making and Hegel and being-essence-concept type arguments mixed with Marx.
